

AB 110 requires a responsive filing fee of $325 in appeals and writ petitions for the first document filed in a civil case by a party other than appellant/petitioner.

AB 110 (Blumenfield), Stats. 2011, ch. 193, was signed by the Governor on August 30, 2011 and took effect immediately.

Beginning September 19, 2011, this court will begin collecting this fee.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Pursuant to the provisions of Assembly Bill 110, signed by the Governor and effective August 30, 2011, the court will now begin charging a filing fee of three hundred twenty-five dollars ($325) for the following documents, where they are the first document filed in the Court of Appeal or the Supreme Court by a party other than the appellant or petitioner in a civil case:

- Any application or opposition to an application;
- Any motion or opposition to a motion;
- Any respondent's brief in an appeal in the Court of Appeal;
- Any preliminary opposition to a petition for a writ;
- Any return (by demurrer, verified answer, or both) after the court issues an alternative writ or order to show cause;
- Any opposition after the court notifies the parties that it is considering issuing a peremptory writ in the first instance;
- Any answer to a petition for review in the Supreme Court; and
- Any brief after the Supreme Court grants review.

The new fee will not be charged for any Mediation Statement form, Case Screening form, or other document filed as part of a court's appellate mediation program.
